Part one - Introduction

1. Statement of Commitment

The Board of PMP has endorsed and adopted the ASX Corporate Governance Council's "Principles of Good Corporate Governance" as the basis for its ongoing practices. Under these Principles PMP is required to adopt a code of conduct to which it adheres in all of its business dealings and its general behaviour.

PMP's reputation is founded on such dealings and behaviour as well as the conduct of each of our employees and contractors. Therefore, consistently high standards are essential to earning us the trust and confidence of our stakeholders, including our shareholders, customers, employees, suppliers and the general community.

The Code of Conduct provides a consistent understanding of the desired behaviours towards each stakeholder. This Code does not attempt to address every situation but to provide a guide as to the standard of conduct that is expected from all staff.

The Code of Conduct is reviewed and supported by PMP Senior Management and the Board which is bound by this Code of Conduct and are expected to observe the highest standards of ethical behaviour.

You are encouraged to contact advisers listed at Sections 3.1 and 3.3 of this document, if you have comments on the matters in the Code of Conduct, or wish to discuss issues or situations which may appear to conflict with the principles outlined in the Code.

2. Underlying Values

- Honesty: The success of PMP, our staff and our customers, depends on honesty, responsibility and integrity. We do not compromise our high ethical standards, mislead others or hide from our responsibilities.

- Teamwork: With a “One Team” ethos, every PMP team member works, supports and defends each other to achieve the company’s goals. We see ourselves as integral partners to our clients and deliver products and services through teamwork and the development of trusted relationships.
- Professionalism: Professionalism with excellence is the cornerstone of PMP and is what we are judged against by every stakeholder. Our success relies upon skilled, knowledgeable professionals who strive to exceed the expectations of our stakeholders every day.
